

Department of Agricultural Economics Research

- a) To develop, implement, monitor and evaluate research projects encompassing subjects of infrastructure, investment, production, management, trade and efficiency analysis of subsidies in order to ensure greater contribution of agriculture sector to national economy.
- b) To develop, implement, monitor and evaluate research projects encompassing subjects of management, planning, finance, accounting, marketing, cost analysis, agriculture law, rural sociology and agricultural dissemination.
- c) To develop, implement, monitor and evaluate research projects investigating the economic impacts of potential changes that may result from the use and management of natural resources, climate change and other environmental factors.
- ç) To collaborate with national and international organizations working in similar field, universities, public and private sectors in order to develop, implement, monitor and evaluate research projects.
- d) To cooperate with relevant institutions and organisation in order to implement / publish the results and findings of the related research.
- e) To perform similar tasks assigned by the General Directorate.